President's Message:

HAPPY 4th of JULY!! We are now into our busy time, with our 30th Anniversary RCLRC Specialty and the RCLRC Hunt Test coming up. I would like to thank ALL of the Committee Chairmen, who have worked so hard this year, to put on all of our club functions. We are so fortunate to also have so many club members taking an active role in helping at all of our activities. This is what makes RCLRC so special and being your RCLRC club president such a joy! I really appreciate all of you!! Thank you!

~Ellen

~~ SILENT AUCTION DONATIONS ~~

Please remember to bring your Silent Auction Donations to the Specialty, on the morning, of the first day! Lisa Cruanas and Julie Galbraith will be accepting items in the covered picnic area. We would appreciate any items which are Labrador/dog related, PLUS don't forget your individual special talents too! Are you a trainer or handler, a photographer, artistic or crafty, etc.,etc.? We will happily make up a coupon that morning, to auction your services :o) All donations are tax deductible. This is our main fund raiser~ RCLRC needs you and hopes everyone will donate. Let's make this, the very best Silent Auction ever!!! Thank you ~

* CONGRATULATIONS TO AARON BRADSHAW ****

Dogs stolen from Renton hotel found OK

On June 14th, a Westminster Kennel Club champion and four other dogs were stolen, with a van, from outside the Larkin Landing Inn, Renton Washington. Someone had stolen the van, with the dogs inside. The dogs were found unharmed, in Federal Way the next day and the crates were found inside a dumpster. Among the five dogs stolen was 7-year-old Andy, winner of "Best of Breed" and a finalist for best of show in last year's Westminster Kennel Club competition. Be on the lookout for:
