President's Message

Hey everyone! A huge shout of Thanks goes out this month to our Treasurer Greg Huntzinger, who put our Yearly Membership booklets together and mailed them out to all of us. Thank you Greg!

Spring is here and our Work Force is starting to finalize the details for our huge month of July. The HRT Chair is looking for all those helpers this year that signed up at the January Meeting to work this event and I still have the list of names. So those who signed up and are new to all this need to make the call or email Nikki Illius to talk it over with her about which day you can attend. You are not expected to devote the entire weekend, but at least one day would be very helpful. Call her and help! I will be following up with Nikki to see how the work force is coming. Remember, this Hunting Retriever Test is for the betterment of our breed and your time is a great way to give back to our Breed.

The Club is also sponsoring a Field day up at Cathy and Jeff Hakola's home. This Field day will be geared towards those who want to attain a Working Certificate and, of course, for those dogs who are working towards their Junior Hunter. This is a fun day filled with camaraderie and it will help get your feet wet if you want to learn more about working your dog and or helping with our Field Events. The date for this W.C. Training day is Saturday, May 12th at noon. The training day will include a pot luck, so give Cathy Hakola a call/email to find out what to bring. There should be more on this in the Newsletter.

For those who have new puppies that are in need of some show training, our B-match puppy show is coming up on Saturday May 19th at Judy and Scott Chambers' home. Look for more information and entry form in this Issue. This is also a Pot luck and a General Membership meeting to follow. Come and plan on showing, eating, meeting, and having fun all the while helping set up and tear down the rings. See you there!

Brag

Quail Run's Kindred Spirit WC CGC (Dred) was WD at Seattle Kennel Club, March 11, 2012 under Judge Richard Beauchamp for a 4 point major. The same day, he qualified for his second Rally Novice leg with a score of 96 out of 100. From the Rally ring, Dred and I went to Meet the Breed where he lovingly suffered to be pampered and petted by numerous children and adults. We then spent the rest of the day in the PSLRA booth doing the same. That was one tired dog when we got home. What a good boy! Dred is owned by Grant Freeman and Cindy Freeman, bred and handled by Cindy Freeman.

B-match: Ellen Sparks still has the box with all of the Match information – Kim and Blake need help in determining what needs to be done. Cindy will to send prior year match flier and entry form. Information needs to be put into the next newsletter along with the entry form. We need to see what ribbons need to be ordered if any.

WC: Discussion about upcoming field practice day. Dan asked if this could possibly be held at Cathy Hakola's house. He said he would ask her. It should be a date before the WC test. WC test possibly the first weekend of June. A Judge has not yet been acquired. Wendy Burley was suggested?

HRT: Barb reported that Dave Illias told her about the Sauvie Island meeting– some of the grounds have been lost, but some new areas are open. Dave feels that it is looking good.

Old Business –

Revisited the idea of conference calling in place of physical meetings. Dan will look into conference call options.

National – Site selection is coming along nicely. A nice location has been visited in Lacey (Hawks Prairie). Barb and Bob have offered to have a party at their house one evening.

There haven't been many people signing up for the chat list. There have been a few technical problems with e-mails not being received by moderator.

New Business – It was brought up that there is no one event that carries the club financially. Much discussion followed.

Dan motioned to adjourn at 8:13 PM – seconded by Barb. All members agreed.
Submitted by Cindy Freeman, Secretary.
