RCLRC Volunteering!

Please start thinking now about how you can support our 2016 events! See the following page for opportunities.

President's Message

Well here it is, a start of a new year for the club! I want to thank Cindy Freeman for her dedication and commitment to our club for the past two years. I hope I can be as effective as she has been, and will work hard to ensure our club meets its goals and continues to provide our members with a venue to express their ideas and showcase their Labrador Retrievers, whether through working in the field, showing in obedience or conformation, participating in therapy, agility or whatever. This breed we have chosen to spend our lives with deserves the best we can give them. If you have any ideas or suggestions, please don't hesitate to let your officers or board members know. A club is only as good as its members and we have a great one!

A special thank you to Judy Chambers for hosting the annual meeting at her home and for cooking the wonderful main courses for us as well. Yummy! The gift exchange was fun and innovative as usual. We voted on a great slate of judges for 2017 and will be announced when they and AKC approve. Mark your calendars: The B-match was voted on for May 14. Our meeting was short due to the amount of information we had to get through. Please see the minutes and upcoming events sections of the newsletter.

The Sportsman Show is coming right up! Contact Jeff Kennedy for time slots to help man our booth February 10 - 14. This is a great opportunity to get those young dogs out to socialize as well as informing and educating the public about our wonderful breed. Please don't forget about the Show & Go on Sunday, February 21st in Salem! Sign up now and contact Julie Marquis for volunteer opportunities.

As you read through the newsletter, please consider volunteering for an event. Besides the upcoming events in February, we still need help during our Speciality and Hunt Test, both in July, which seems far away but is right around the corner! Also, if you have a suggestion for an educational speaker or program, please contact Barbara Gilchrist, our new vice president.

That's all I have for now! Hope to see you at the next meeting on February 19th at 7PM at the Delta Park Elmers.

Your President,
Lisa Crunias

Did You Know?

Rave reviews for the Denise Fenzi Gun

Dog Foundations online classes! Gun Dogs Foundations 1 & 2 and Gun Dogs Foundations Upland Training, taught by Cassia Turcotte of Barrel Select Chesapeakes in Connecticut, is receiving rave reviews by her students. This is a great way to help your puppy buyers train their pups for beginning field work and hunt tests. Course details for Gun Dogs Foundations 1 is below and additional information can be found at: <http://www.fenzidogsportsacademy.com/>

Have you ever wanted to try gun dog sports with your dog or have a new puppy, but didn't know how to get started? Now you can learn how by using games, shaping, and play to explore necessary foundation behaviors encompassing all types of gun dog work, hunt tests, and real world versatile hunting companions.

We'll cover in detail how to teach the basic foundation skill sets, gain control over your environment, and safely introduce your dog to gunshots, birds, terrain, cover, and water. You will learn how to desensitize an overly aroused dog and to bring up desire in a soft one... and you will get the pleasure of watching your dog learn to harness and perfect his natural abilities.

We will use videos and lecture to demonstrate various parts of the learning and generalization phases using dog and handler teams with differing styles, strengths, and focus areas. This is a class for any age dog or puppy that shares foundation skills you can teach in your living room and then transfer to the field.

Brags & Wags

From Barb Gilchrest: Our 7 month old puppy boy named "Dom" was W.D., B.O.W., B.O.B.!!!! January 24th at the Tualatin Kennel Club show. Dom is out of Blackthorn Endeavor x Ch. Somersun Blackthorn Temptress Tich and bred by Katie Somers, owned by Barb and Bob Gilchrist. What a thrill it was!

From Betty Barkley: Brandi won a select major Saturday January 23rd at Rose City. She is now Ch Breton Gate On Goal.
