President's Message

Happy New 2018!

First the Club wants to Thank Lisa Cruanas for her heading up the Club as President. We appreciate all you did Lisa. Thank you!

The January Annual Meeting was a lovely success due in part to the generosity of Judy and Scott Chambers allowing the use of their beautiful home! Thanks Judy and Scott!

With the New Officers and two New Board positions filled, comes new ideas and energy. The Club works when all its Members help pitch in when whether on a volunteer basis or having been asked.

I have a Job as President as a facilitator so when or if I call members and ask for help, I hope as in the past you will answer the call.

In this next month we have the Sportsman Show. The time slot work sheet was passed around at the January meeting, but some time slots are still in need of being filled. Jeff Kennedy is the Chair of this event so please contact Jeff to help. It's a great way to meet the public and take a dog or two for socialization and educate the public about our great breed and about RCLRC.

We look forward to our next meeting at Elmer's Restaurant and hope you can come as our General Membership meetings are always open to all.

*Your President,
Barb Gilchrist*
