President's Message

The RCLRC Specialty is a GO! I can't say how much the club owes to all those involved in seeing the show will happen. Dozens of emails have been flying around behind the scenes between your board (Rebecca Bloom, Judy Slayton-Bachofner, Barb Gilchrist, Erica McClure) and the Show Chairs (Linda Coogan and Cindy Freeman) to see that the show is safe and fun for all involved. Lizzie Moore has worked hard on the trophies and donations and Rebecca stepped up to help Lizzie not only with the trophy donations, but to help Judy with the stud dog auction. Lizzie in turn has helped with getting the stud dog auction online. Other club members have helped with judges' gifts (Cathy Hakola), lunches for the judges and stewards (Susan Huntzinger) and what would we do without Mimi our fabulous judges' liaison!

A huge shout out to our Show Secretary Lorrain Yu as well. She arranged with AKC to move the closing of entries to July 1st to allow more time for people to enter their dogs.

The State of Oregon and Marion County currently REQUIRE face masks in ALL

INDOOR areas. Outdoors, masks are not required if social distancing of 6 ft can be maintained. For the safety and well-being of our friends, family and all those participating in the show I hope you will be considerate of those around you and Wear a mask at all times even when social distancing. Remember the mask does little to protect you; it is for the protection of those around you.

I look forward to seeing all the wonderful folks who have volunteered to help Cindy and Linda with set up...Cathy Hakola, Ellen Sparks, Tamaria Hartman, Lisa, McGlothelen, Stacy Parsons, Beth Wilkerson, Greg and Susan Huntzinger, Jan Cameron and any others I am missing thanking.

See you Wednesday, July 8th 3:00 pm at the park.

Next up for the club the HRT on July 25th and 26th. I know Cindy and our new Chair Lili Lobingier would love to hear from volunteers as well.
